

FMS Annual Conference, 20-22 September, 2007
Syracuse University

Activist Scholars and Pedagogies of Transformation

All events are located in the Sheraton Conference Center unless otherwise noted.

Thursday, 20 September

6:00 - 7:45 pm: Welcome Dinner at the Goldstein Alumni and Faculty Center

8:00 – 9:00 pm: Leila Flores-Dueñas and Carol Vigil of Las Flores del Valle
Performance at Watson Theater

(A 45 minute informal musical performance with focus on the role of Soldadas and Soldaderas of the Mexican Revolution and the legacy that these women contribute to our lives today in the borderlands)

Friday, 21 September

8:00 - 9:00 am: Breakfast in the Foyer

9:00 – 12:00 pm: Syracuse Activist Knowledge Projects

Lunch: 12:00 - 1:45 pm (Location TBA)

2:00 - 3:30 pm: Native Scholars/Comparative Indigeneities

Scott Lyons, Sean Tueton, Ixkic Duarte Bastian
Richard Loder, Chair

3:30 - 3:45 pm: Break in Foyer

3:45 - 6 pm: Pedagogies of Transformation

Joseph Jordan, Leila Flores-Dueñas, Amie Macdonald
Margaret Himley, Chair,

Dinner: 7:30 pm at the Chancellor's Residence

Welcome and Remarks , Nancy Cantor, "Scholarship in Action and FMS"

Saturday, 22 September

8:00 - 9:00 am: Breakfast in the Foyer

9:00 – 11:00 am: New Racializations: Transnational Comparisons

Margaret Wetherell, Director, U.K. Economic and Social Research Council Programme on Identities and Social Action, Linda Carty, Sandy Darity
Satya P. Mohanty, Chair

11:15 am - 1:15 pm: Feminist Disability Studies

Rosemarie Garland Thomson, Cythia Wu, Cheryl Sparks,
Beth Ferri, chair

Lunch: 1:15 - 2:45 pm – Choice of Marshall Street Restaurants

3:00 – 5:00 pm: Transforming the Academy: Reflections of Radical Activist Scholars

Beverly Guy-Sheftall, Michael Hames-Garcia, Jack (John Kuo Wei) Tchen
Johnella Butler, Chair

7:00 - 11:30 pm Dinner and Dance Party in the Underground at the Schine Student Center